

Barbara Jolly, RPh, MPA

Biographical Sketch

Barb is Professor in the Clinical and Administrative Services department at Sullivan University College of Pharmacy (SUCOP). She is also the Director of the Office of Lifelong Professional Development. She has been the CPE administrator for three organizations and has served as a CPE field reviewer for ACPE for more than a decade. Ms. Jolly earned a BS degree in pharmacy at the University of Missouri College of Pharmacy – Kansas City and completed an MPA degree in health services administration at the Bloch School of Public Administration.