Biographical Sketch

Jennifer Moulton, BSPHarm, RPH is President of CEI. She has worked in the area of continuing pharmacy education for 25 years, beginning at the Iowa Pharmacy Association and then playing an integral role in founding and growing CEI beginning in 2007. In 2017, she purchased CEI and has grown the business to include education products, education services, and a robust learning management system. She served on ACPE's CPE Commission, including a role as Chair, and on ACPE's CPD Taskforce, for which she was a founding member and Chair when it began in 2010. Moulton led a 5-State CPD Pilot Project in 2006, and contributed to publications and presentations, nationally and internationally. She has served as a pharmacy preceptor in the state of Iowa since 1994, and works with over 70 schools of pharmacy to assist them in providing professional development and education for their preceptors. Her passion for continuing pharmacy education lies in advancing pharmacy practice on both an individual level through professional development and leadership growth, as well as a practice level through education and innovation.
