

JoAnn S. Harris, B.S. Pharm., MBA., CHCP

Biographical Sketch

JoAnn Stacy Harris is Director, Educational Services Division at the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists. Her responsibilities include oversight of all activities in the Educational Services Division, planning and developing educational initiatives for ASHP, including the Midyear Clinical Meeting. Ms. Harris has over twenty-five years of experience in pharmacy practice. Prior to joining ASHP, Ms. Harris was a director of pharmacy for a health-system. In her current role, Ms. Harris develops lifelong learning opportunities for pharmacists that foster continuous professional growth and the advancement of pharmacy practice in health-systems.

Ms. Harris received a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from Northeastern University and a Master of Business Administration from Virginia Tech's Pamplin School of Business.