

Standard 8: Educational Materials

The provider must offer educational materials for each CPE activity that will enhance participants' understanding of the content and foster applications to pharmacy practice.

Guidance:

Educational materials should serve as a guide, provide additional sources of information, and include reference tools usable in practice.